

wagamama

faneuil hall | prudential center | harvard square

from bowl to soul.

welcome to wagamama.

a place of positive eating for positive living.

asian food inspired by the flavors of japan. cooking only the freshest of ingredients, to make
food that satisfies senses and soul.

our kitchen's open, like our minds. we cook with flavor, heat and love.

we first opened in london 24 years ago, that's two whole decades of sharpening our skills, and we strive to get better by the day

how to wagamama

we have our own ways at wagamama.
they help you make the most of us.
sharing, trying, choosing. talking, waiting,
not waiting. this is how to wagamama.
know them and dine happy

we know no order

every dish is served
as soon as it's
ready, so you get it
at its freshest. this
means that dishes
arrive at different
times. don't wait
for others though,
always eat while
it's steaming hot

eat social

we believe in
egalitarian eating.
communal tables,
sharing, everyone
dining together.
we think food tastes
better like that

customize your meal

sometimes
we'll suggest extra
ways to make a dish
your own. sometimes
we won't. consider
your options,
but always obey
your hunger

chopstick policy

the wise man learns
to use chopsticks.
the wise man who
can't use chopsticks
asks a server for
a fork (but also
takes a set home
to practice)

our noodles

are exactly that.
our own secret
recipe, perfected
with 100 years
of history. noodles
may just seem
like noodles,
but to us they're
so much more

our green tea

is on the house

sides

you take a little of this and a lot of that.
 you swap. you dip your chili squid in your ramen and drizzle some cherry hoisin sauce on your duck gyoza.
 you try new things. that's why we love our sides. they're the smaller plates that make the big dishes even better
